

February 27, 2025
SCSK Corporation

Signed an official partnership agreement with Major League Baseball (MLB™)

SCSK Corporation, (headquartered in Koto-ku, Tokyo; Takaaki Touma, President & CEO; hereinafter referred to as SCSK) announces that they have signed a two-year official partner agreement with Major League Baseball (hereinafter referred to as MLB™), the world's premier professional baseball league, starting January 2025.

Major League Baseball trademarks and copyrights are used by permission of Major League Baseball. For more information, please visit MLB.com.

Background of the official partner agreement

The SCSK Group offers a full lineup of IT services for all business needs, from consulting, system development, verification services, IT infrastructure construction, IT management, IT hardware and software sales, and business process outsourcing

(BPO). The SCSK Group's management philosophy is "Create Our Future of Dreams" and to date, we have helped more than 8,000 customers solve their problems and, by extension, various social issues.

The MLB TOKYO SERIES presented by Guggenheim" is the dream stage for baseball players all over the world, and has given many dreams to the people who watch them play. In order to communicate the management philosophy of the management integration policy of SCSK and Net One Systems to as many people as possible, the logos of both companies will be displayed on the official helmets worn by the Chicago Cubs and Los Angeles Dodgers in the "MLB TOKYO SERIES presented by Guggenheim" with our pride. Through this MLB Official Partner Agreement, we will continue to grow to create new value and create a future of dreams.

About SCSK Corporation

SCSK Corporation offers a full lineup of IT services for all business needs, including consulting, system development, verification services, IT infrastructure construction, IT management, IT hardware and software sales, and business process outsourcing (BPO). We are also taking on new challenges to solve issues in various industries, sectors, and society through IT-based co-creation with customers and society.

<https://www.scsk.jp/>

About Net One Systems Co., Ltd.

As a group of ICT connoisseurs with superior technological capabilities and the ability to identify value, Net One Systems Co., Ltd. is committed to contributing to a sustainable society by providing services that create social and economic value through the utilization of ICT. We are constantly identifying the world's most advanced technological trends, verifying their combinations, and providing our customers with the know-how to utilize them by putting them into practice within our company.

<https://www.netone.co.jp/>

For inquiries regarding this release

SCSK Corporation

Public Relations Department, Sustainability Promotion and Public Relations Division

TEL:03-5166-1150

* All product names, company names, and service names are trademarks or registered trademarks of their respective companies.