2. Transaction Conditions and Method of Deciding Transaction Conditions

In principle, transactions with the parent company are to utilize appropriate conditions based on the conditions of standard transactions with arm's length parties. For IT solutions provision, the Company submits price estimates based on market prices and cost ratios, and price negotiations take place with regard to every project.

Interest rates on capital trusts are determined based on the conditions of standard transactions with arm's length parties with consideration paid to market interest rates.

4. Implementation of policies for protecting minority interests when conducting transactions with parent company or other controlling interests

The Company does not face restrictions on its business activities imposed by the parent company.

In transactions with the parent company, SCSK utilizes appropriate conditions based on the conditions of standard transactions with arm's length parties to protect the interests of minority shareholders. The Conflict of Interest Advisory Committee, which is comprised of outside directors designated as independent directors and outside experts, is consulted prior to engaging in particularly important transactions with the parent company, and the decision of whether or not to proceed with transactions is made by the Board of Directors based on the advice of this committee. From the perspective of protecting minority interests, the Company's Board of Directors is comprised of 11 directors, including six outside directors designated as independent directors who have no conflicts of interest with general shareholders (as of March 31, 2025). The Board of Directors makes important management decisions and operational execution independent of the parent company, thereby ensuring that the management decisions of the Company feature the levels of autonomy and independence necessary of a listed company.

Moreover, regular reports regarding transactions with the parent company are submitted to the Conflict of Interest Advisory Committee to ensure the impartiality of said transactions.
